TRY IT

Here's a token of gratitude that speaks for itself. For a clever hostess gift, take a bottle of wine or bubbly to Things Remembered and have it engraved with a personal message. Rather than toss the empty bottle in the recycling bin, your hostess can reuse it as a vase.

RUSH OUT AND GET IT

Popularized at Woodstock 40 years ago, the hippie peace symbol takes on a modern sophistication for its anniversary, done up in glitter, denim, sequins, and embossed leather. Celebrate peace on earth this season in a groovy new way.

Alice kept the Bitty Bunch household running. Now Alice.com can help keep your home from running out of essentials. The online super mall sells everything from Adirado Zwick bags and wet-dog customers when it's time to reorder, based on their family size, then ships the goods for free. Set up an account, mark the products to you use, and leave the shopping to Alice!

CRAVE IT

We've been dreaming of these cupcakes—moist, airy, and topped with the perfect amount of sweet icing—since we tested them at Georgetown Cupcake in Washington, DC. Now that they're available online, our dreams (and yours!) can come true. Choose from 12 flavors, including classic vanilla and seasonal delights like caramel apple and pumpkin spice.
